Dear Nguyen Bac Truyen,

I was deeply moved when I heard about your situation. I am writing to let you know that your story is being told all over the world and that people are mobilising to protest your imprisonment. You are not alone or forgotten. I admire your tireless efforts to peacefully defend religious minorities against discrimination, and I will continue to protest your detention hoping that you will soon be reunited with your wife and family.

May the source of all hope and comfort grant you consolation and true peace of conscience in the difficult circumstances you are going through.

In solidarity,
